

National Natural Science Fund Committee and the United States, the bill and Melinda Gates Foundation Memorandum of understanding on cooperation in Beijing signed

Date 2015-10-27 source: International Cooperation Bureau Author: Wei Qin 【 Big medium small 】 【 print 】 【 close 】

1 capture

30 Oct 2015

Go

SEP OCT NOV

30

2014 2015 2016

About this capture

Signed before the ceremony, Shen Yan, Deputy Director met with the BMGF Chief Executive Officer Susan Desmond-Hellman Susan Desmod-Hellmann) a line of six people. He told Susan Desmond-Hellman visit and 2015 BMGF Grand challenges annual meeting held in Beijing, a warm welcome and congratulations, and the National Natural Science Foundation funding landscape, budget, strategic initiatives and the funding of effectiveness was introduced. Shen Yan, Deputy Director noted that China as the world's largest developing countries, with the BMGF has broad cooperation space. The Gates Foundation signed a cooperation Memorandum of understanding, the Fund's Board for the first time as a non-governmental charitable Foundation to establish a partnership. The parties through the joint financing of scientific research, the promotion of global health and agricultural areas of progress.

Susan Desmond-Hellman, Ms. Shen Yan, Deputy Director attended the signing ceremony of gratitude, and highly appreciated both in promoting the establishment of a formal bilateral cooperation in the process carried out by the active and efficient communication and Exchange. She said, BMGF attaches great importance to China cooperation, the hope of the future with the funds of the Commission in agreement on bilateral cooperation under the framework, in areas of common interest to cooperate hand in hand to jointly address the global health and development challenges.

Copyright: The National Natural Science Foundation Committee of the Beijing ICP 05002826 number
Copyright 2005 NSFC, All Right Reserved